

Joel McGuire Bio

Joel McGuire is a singer, songwriter, guitarist, and keyboardist, with over 20 years' experience. His full band sound is complimented by a state of the art Bose sound system. His stage show is a showcase for a one-man band.

Following a successful run with The Spies and The Free Flight Band, Joel has maintained a solo act since 2000, playing over 50 popular venues throughout the Maryland and Delaware region. His website averages 300 visitors per week.

During that time span, Joel has entertained audiences throughout the Del-Marva area. Recently, Joel has had the pleasure of playing some of the most popular night spots in and around the Baltimore/Washington area. Joel is currently represented by Catapult Records, has a CD on iTunes, Amazon.com, Rhapsody, and other on-line music services.

In 2009, Joel teamed with Russ Steele (formerly of Bootcamp) to form the duo, "Wonderview." Joel has also been the lead singer for the group, "Smile" from 2010-2012. In 2013, he teamed up with upright bass player and vocalist, Rick Ivy, formerly of the Church Mice and The Slow Jets, for select duo performances. In 2015, he joined the band, Invasion, a British 60's-70's tribute band, providing drums and vocals.

Joel plays a wide variety of Acoustic, Electric, and Soft and Classic Rock including over 150 well known songs from past to present.

Along with classic tunes from the Beatles & The Stones, Santana, Elton John & Billy Joel, Paul Simon, James Taylor, Bob Dylan, Marvin Gaye, Al Green, & Tom Petty, he also covers some of the more recent artists of today's music such as Bruno Mars, Maroon 5, The New Radicals, Jack Johnson, and the Neon Trees. Joel has also played several 1960's and 1970's celebration events, including classic car shows, office parties, weddings, conventions, and monumental birthday parties!

Joel McGuire is an entertaining musical act performing music for a wide audience (over 100 shows in 2012!) -- From Teeny-Boppers to Baby Boomers and everyone in between!
